Summer Farm Share Pledge

As a member of That Guy's Family Farm Summer Farm Share program, I understand the following:

- I am supporting local food production and am making a financial commitment for the 2018 summer season. As the designated shareholder, I understand my payment is non-refundable.
- I recognize farming is a risk-taking venture, and as such I realize there will be no guarantees on the exact amount or kind of products I will receive.
- I understand it is my responsibility to pick-up my share at the farm on the designated days throughout the season.
- I fully understand and accept this commitment and assume responsibility to contact That Guy's Family Farm if there are any questions or concerns on my behalf.

In order to complete your reservation for the 2018 Summer Farm Share, you can mail payment with a signed pledge form to the address listed below.
